Discovery | Joshua Dream Snapshot

Illustrative biblical case study - not an actual client

Client and context

Client: Joshua son of Nun | Context: Joshua 1-3
Illustrative goal: Lead Israel across the Jordan and establish a faithful foothold in the land.

Dream and purpose

Vision: Lead the people with courage and obedience after Moses, trusting the promises of God.
Why now: A leadership transition and a river crossing create an immediate need for clear direction.

Starting point and strengths

Strengths: Prior service with Moses, experience leading, and encouragement from the Lord.
Resources: Priests, officers, tribes, and the ark.

Obstacles and top priorities

Obstacles: Leadership transition, fear, the Jordan, and the challenges ahead.
1. Remain grounded in the law and God's instruction.
2. Prepare the people and coordinate the crossing.
3. Lead with courage and shared responsibility.

Recommended action and result

Action: Instruct officers to prepare the people.
Illustrative outcome: Israel crosses the Jordan on dry ground (Joshua 3:14-17).
Scripture: Joshua 1:1-11; 3:14-17.
